Frosty the Snowman is a fairytale they say,
He was running down to the village with a broomstick in his hand.

Frosty made of snow but the children know,
How he came to life one day.

There, there all around the square,
Saying “Catch me if you can.”

There must have been some magic in that old silk hat they found.
And led them down the streets of town right to the traffic cop.

When they placed it on his head he began to dance around.
Oh, he only paused a moment when he heard him holler “Stop!”

Frosty the Snow-man was alive as he could be.
Frosty the Snow-man had to hurry on his way.

Children say he could laugh and play,
Waved good-bye saying, “Don’t you cry, I’ll be back again some day.”

Thump-ety thump thump, thump-ety thump thump, look at Frosty go.

Thump-ety thump thump, thump-ety thump thump over the hills of snow.
